a. Bike Lane Signing & Striping Pilot Project Concept Recommendations (Action Item)

Mr. DiRutigliano presented the revised Bike Lane Signing and Striping Pilot Project Concept Recommendations for review and discussion. Mr. DiRutigliano went over each segment and the design concepts that were proposed for them.

Mr. Fox explained that $500K in funding has been approved in the FFY23-27 Transportation Improvement Program (TIP) for this project. Mr. Fox explained that the paint that will be used is intended to be temporary and there will likely be signs on parts of the project alerting drivers to share the road with or be aware of bicyclists.

Motion: To extend the meeting by 20 minutes. (Zervos/Stern).

Discussion: No discussion.

Vote on Motion: None opposed. Approved.

Motion: To pass the Bike Lane Signing & Striping Pilot Project design concept recommendations on to the City of Fairbanks. (Stern/Zervos).

Discussion: Mr. Zervos commented that maybe they should look at this more closely.

Mr. Stern commented that if the City of Fairbanks takes a look at this and decides that there needs to be major changes, or this is just not going to fly, then they can make changes to it.

Dr. Belz commented that he was comfortable with moving this along.

Ms. Bissell commented that she was comfortable with moving this along as well.

Vote on Motion: Four in favor. One opposed. (Zervos). Approved.
